DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-6 have been canceled.

Priority

2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No. 09/254,119, filed on 4/16/99.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement submitted on 8/4/00 was filed before the mailing date of the non-final rejection on 8/12/01. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the petition is granted and the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
5. Claims 7-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
6. In claims 7, 9-11, and 13-15, the phrase "a low melting point metal ball" is vague and indefinite since it is not clear what the metal ball is compared with to establish that the metal ball has a low melting point.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 7-15, insofar as some of them can be understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Okuyama (JP 4-65130).

With respect to Claims 7, 10, 11, 14, and 15, Okuyama teaches a semiconductor device comprising electrodes 6 formed on a chip 2 with bumps 8 each consisting of spherical metal ball having a melting point. The metal ball 8 has a given size that is adhesively bonded to the electrodes 6. The adhesive bonds the metal balls 8 to the electrode with a flux 7. The metal balls 8 undergo a process of reflowing (see English abstract and figures).

With respect to Claims 8 and 12, the flux 7 is applied to the electrode 6 (see Figs. 13 and 15).

With respect to Claims 9 and 13, a vacuum device that is connected to an air suction socket 33 is driven to reduce the pressure in a vacuum chamber 27. This causes the balls 8 to jump up into the base plate 15, 28-30. Therefore, it would be inherent from the vacuum device that a vibration takes place at a small amplitude to the vessel. The vessel holds and arranges the metal balls 8 on an arrangement base plate 15, 28-30 by attracting the jumping up of the metal balls 8 to attraction openings provided in the arrangement base plate 15, 28-30. The attraction openings provided in the arrangement base plate 15, 28-30 correspond to positions of the electrodes 6 of the chip 2 to which the metal balls 8 are to be adhesively bonded. Excess metal balls are removed from the arrangement base plate. The metal balls 8 are simultaneously held and arranged on the arrangement base plate 15, 28-30 with the electrodes of the chip 2 (see English abstract and figures).

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. It is cited primarily to show processes of packaging a semiconductor device, which are similar to the process of the instant invention.
